

When were the 2022 Annual Notice of Assessment be sent to property owners?

Friday, May 27.

Can I come into the Assessor's office to speak with someone?

- Yes. Paulding government operations are open to the public from 8:00 to 5:00 Monday thru Friday. Please keep in mind we have staff available by phone, mail or email to assist with any questions or concerns.

How can owners get information used for the notice?

- If you do not want to come into the office, the Assessor's office has information on the Paulding.gov website as well as the Assessor's QPublic website.

Homestead

Link: Homestead Information

Sales and property information is listed on the website

Link: 2021 Paulding Sales

Complete property information including sales are available at

Link: Assessor's QPublic Website

Is there a Deadline to appeal?

If you disagree with information on your notice, you must file a written appeal with the Board of Assessor's no later than Monday July 11.

Do I have to file an appeal in person?

No. Appeals are received by mail, fax, email or in person.

Is there a form to appeal?

Yes. Appeal forms are available on the Assessor's web or in the office. On-line appeal forms are available by clicking the link below.

Appeal Form

What if an owner cannot locate the notice sent out?

- Three years of notices are located on the Assessor's web at Assessor's QPublic Website or you can always give us a call, email or visit and we will be more than happy to provide you with a copy of the notice.

Who should owners contact if they have questions?

- The Board of Assessor's office. You can give us a call, email or visit and we will be more than happy to provide you with the information and answer any of your questions. Our contact information is below.

Assessment Notice hotline: 770-505-1362 (only during appeal period)

Office: 770-443-7606

Fax: 770-443-7539

Address: 240 Constitution Boulevard, Room 3082, Dallas, GA
30132

Email: assessors@paulding.gov