Corporal Terry Greene Retires from the Sheriff's Office

(Paulding County, GA) On April 30, 2013 Corporal Terry Greene retired from the Paulding County Sheriff's Office with over 14 years of service. Corporal Greene began his employment with the Sheriff's Office on December 18, 1998. While employed at the Sheriff's Office, Corporal Greene served under retired Sheriff Bruce Harris and current Sheriff Gary Gulledge. Throughout his career, Corporal Greene worked in the Detention Center and helped oversee the Special Operations Division. The Special Operations Division manages all inmate workforce activities where inmate labor is used to cut taxpayer costs for things such as litter pickup on county roadways, landscaping at county facilities, as well as many other things.

Sheriff Gulledge expressed his gratitude to Corporal Greene for his 14 years of dedicated service to Paulding County as well as the Paulding County Sheriff's Office at a retirement reception held at the Paulding County Senior Center on April 29, 2013. Corporal Greene was surrounded by co-workers, friends, and family at the reception held in his honor.

The Paulding County Sheriff's Office wants to congratulate Corporal Terry Greene on his retirement.
