Church Security and Emergency Preparedness: Venue/Date Change

(Paulding County, GA) After receiving an overwhelming response, the Church Security and Emergency Preparedness class date and location have been changed. The class will now be held on Tuesday March 1, 2016 in the Auditorium at Paulding County High School. The seminar will take place from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm.

Sheriff Gary Gulledge is hosting the Church Security and Emergency Preparedness seminar for local clergy members in order to educate them on what the current trends are for churches. This two hour course will be open to pastors and deacons from any Paulding County church and will educate them on the most current laws and security techniques available to help keep their church safe. Highlighted in the class will be a review of Georgia law in reference to firearms in church, as well as safety and security procedures for churches. This course will only be open to the leadership of the church, regular members will not be able to attend due to space and printed materials limitations.

If you would like more information or would like to register for the class, please call the Paulding County Sheriff's Office Training Center at (770) 443-7630. The deadline to sign up is Wednesday February 24, 2016. Please note, if you have previously signed up for this class, you do not need to sign up again.
